

“IBM's Business in Vermont”

John DiToro, IBM Vice President of Burlington Semiconductor Manufacturing and Burlington Senior Location Executive

What: IEEE Green Mountain Section Meeting

Where: Inn at Essex, Essex Junction, VT

When: Wednesday, December 8th, 2004

Social Time: 6:15pm – 7:00pm

Dinner and Talk: 7:00pm – 9:00pm

The dinner is $15 for IEEE student members, $20 for IEEE members, and $25 for all others.

Please contact Jim Monzel for reservations, jmonzel@ieee.org, 802-769-6428. Please respond by Friday, December 3rd at the latest. Please specify any dietary restrictions (e.g. vegetarian).

Dinner will include: Caesar Salad, Garlic Croutons, Fresh Mozzarella, Tomatoes, and Basil, Chef's Collection of Antipasti, Chicken Piccata, Risotto, Lemon, Parsley, Capers, Broccoli, Olive Oil Sautéed Shrimp, Garlic, Pinot-Blanc, Olive Oil, Angel Hair Pasta, Wilted Greens Carved Oregano-Garlic Rubbed Pork Loin “Class-made” Rolls and Butter Tiramisu, Amaretto Strawberries, Chantilly Cream, Chocolate Èclairs and Profiteroles Coffee, Decaffeinated Coffee, Tea

John DiToro, IBM Vice President of Burlington Semiconductor Manufacturing and Burlington Senior Location Executive, will speak on IBM's business in Vermont and the IBM Corporation's perspective on the dynamic IT marketplace, changing skills market, and innovation.