

Please Join
The Women in Engineering Affinity Group
of

for

Dinner & A Show

Saturday, April 25, 2009

Dinner	Show
Where: Confusion Corner Bar & Grill, 500 Corydon Avenue	Where: Forrest Nickerson Theatre, Manitoba Centre for the Deaf – 285 Pembina Highway
When: 5:30pm	When: First Play starts at 7:30pm
Tables have been reserved for IEEE Party; we will order from the menu.	Both plays are 45 minutes in duration; 15 minute intermission between plays
Arrangements made for separate bills.	Seats will be reserved for IEEE Party.
Each attendee/couple to pay for own dinner.	Cost: $10; Cash payments only
Plenty of parking available in the rear or on the street.	Cost covers only play tickets and goes directly to the production company.

We will meet for dinner and then walk or drive one block to the theatre.

Membership Not Required

Open to the Public

Guests Welcome!

To Register: Email the following information to mcfarlane@ieee.org:

- Name of attendees
- For reporting purposes, please indicate if attendees are IEEE members and/or Students

Registration Deadline: Wednesday, April 22, 2009

Both plays were written by Ron Blicq and have been entered in the GADOC 61st Annual One Act Play Festival in the UK. Please join us for this pre-production performance depicting life on the Prairies, in support of Manitoba playwrights, featuring teen and senior actors! Please spread the word to support this worthwhile cause!

For more information, please go to: <http://www.ieee.ca/winnipeg>

First Play: You Will Write, Won't You?	Second Play: Sudoku Fever
A contemporary drama in which Melissa, who lives on a Saskatchewan farm, wants to become a writer. But her boyfriend Pete, his parents, and her mother urge her to go to agricultural college and return to manage the farm. When she wins a scholarship to a prestigious Writers' Institute, she has to make a decision: if she accepts the honour she will disappoint those she loves.	A light comedy in which Regan is nearing graduation from high school in Minnedosa, Manitoba. She wants to enroll in Mechanical Engineering at a Winnipeg university, but her mother is determined she should stay home and help her in her realty business.

