

GUEST TOUR #1 - MISSOURI WINE COUNTRY

Monday, May 5, 2003

11:00am to 4:00pm

Subject to Availability - Minimum of 20 registered participants

The rolling hills and breathtaking vistas of Augusta await you! This guided tour will familiarize you with the past and present of Missouri wine making history during the drive to Augusta (approximately 45 miles west of St. Louis). Wine production has been a part of Missouri's heritage since the mid-1800s. At the turn of the century, Missouri ranked second in the nation in wine production.

Next, you will enjoy a family-style lunch at the Ebenezer United Church of Christ. Built in 1861 this is one of the oldest churches West of the Mississippi. After lunch, you will have time to stroll through historic Augusta and visit it's many craft and antique stores.

After lunch, you will visit the award-winning Mount Pleasant Winery and tour the historic underground limestone cellars. Afterwards you can sample many fine wines in the tasting room.

*****

Cost: $50.00 per person

Tour departs and returns from the Hyatt Regency Union Station

GUEST TOUR #2 - ANTIQUES GALORE!

Tuesday, May 6, 2003

9:30am to 2:30pm

Subject to Availability - Minimum of 20 registered participants

This guided tour will start your day with a brief introduction of antiquing at the Regent Parade Consignment Shop in Clayton. Next, visit the other quaint shops on Clayton Row Antique District featuring a wide selection of furniture, china, jewelry, decorative arts, as well as many other fine items.

For lunch (on own), you will stop at Union Station which was once the busiest rail terminal in the world; the Grand Hall and Train Shed have been magnificently renovated to house specialty stores, restaurants, festive markets and a luxury hotel.

After lunch, it is off to historic Cherokee Antique Row for more antiquing. Enjoy a self-guided tour spanning a six block area with more than 45 shops full of antiques and collectibles.

*****

Cost: $25 per person

Tour departs and returns from the Hyatt Regency Union Station

GUEST TOUR #3 – HISTORIC ST. LOUIS

Wednesday, May 7, 2003

9:00am to 12:00pm

Subject to Availability - Minimum of 20 registered participants

Explore historic St. Louis. This guided tour will explore some of the most the historic sites in St. Louis. The first site will be Forest Park. Forest Park was the site of the 1904 World's Fair and is one of the largest city parks in the country. Bordering the park you will see the mansions on Lindell Boulevard and the Washington University campus whose administration building was the headquarters for the Fair.

Today, Forest Park houses the world renowned Saint Louis Zoo, the Saint Louis Art Museum, the Science Center, History Museum and the Muny - the largest outdoor theater in the country, among other attractions.

Your first stop is at the Saint Louis Art Museum where there is something for everyone from modern art to the Renaissance. See the Egyptian Mummy, the Period Rooms or the Impressionists. A guided introductory tour highlights the museum's gems and you will understand why the Saint Louis Art Museum is considered one of the ten finest in the country.

If the Art Museum is not your preference you may enjoy a visit to the History Museum at the Jefferson Memorial. There you will be taken back in time to explore the history of St. Louis from 1764 to the present, including the Lewis & Clark Expedition and the early days of aviation with Charles Lindbergh's historic transatlantic flight.

Finally, you will visit the St. Louis Cathedral where you will see the largest collection of mosaics in the world- 84,000 square feet in 8,000 shades of color! You will pass the historic Central West End neighborhood and the mansions bordering Forest Park, fine examples of the "Golden Age" of St. Louis at the turn of the century.

*****

Cost: $25 per person

Tour departs and returns from the Hyatt Regency Union Station